

E-NEWS from Congresswoman Jennifer Dunn

An electronic legislative update for July 3, 2002

W h a t i s g o i n g o n t h i s w e e k ?

The US House is currently in its Independence Day District Work Period and Members of Congress are in their districts. There are no votes for the week of July 1 - July 5. The House will be back in session and votes will resume on Monday, July 8, 2002.

The following is a list of some of the district events on Jennifer's schedule:

Monday, July 1: At the request of Jennifer, Acting FDA Commissioner Dr. Les Crawford visited the 8th district to meet with local biotechnology company officials. Jennifer and Dr. Crawford also toured the Seiman's headquarters in Issaquah, Washington.

That evening, Jennifer held a town hall meeting at the Mt. Si Senior Center in North Bend.

Tuesday, July 2: Jennifer met with a group of seniors at Issaquah Middle School Commons to discuss the important issue of Medicare. Following the Medicare meeting, she visited the Issaquah Senior Center for lunch.

That evening, Jennifer held a Town Hall Meeting in Maple Valley at the Community Center.

Also on July 2, Jennifer toured the Puget Sound Blood Center to be briefed on their operations and plans to respond to local emergencies.

Wednesday, July 3: Jennifer will hold a Town Hall Meeting at the Kent Senior Activity Center to discuss Medicare. Following the Kent seniors' meeting, she will visit the North Bellevue Community and Senior Center for lunch.

Jennifer will also meet with participants of Athletes for Kids, a high school athlete mentor program for physically and emotionally challenged children.

Thursday, July 4: As she does every year, Jennifer will be participating in the Carnation Independence Day parade.

HAVE A GREAT 4th OF JULY!